

The Girl I Left Behind Me

THE GIRL I LEFT BEHIND ME 5136 A1

Frank Pipkin Arvin, 1941

There is a wealthy merchant Which lives on a hill close by
He had a lovely daughter On whom I cast my eye.
Her being so tall and handsome So lovely and so fair
There was not another girl With which I could compare.

I asked her if she'd be willin' For me to cross the plains
She said she'd be willin' If I'd return again
She said that she'd be true to me Till death proved her unkind
So I shook her hand and parted From the girl I left behind.

I left Okup County For Denver I was bound
I roamed to Denver City And viewed the town all around.
Work and money being plenty The girls to me was kind -
But the only object on my mind Was the girl I left behind.
